EDUCATIONAL SEMINARS
2011-2012 ARGENTINA ADMINISTRATOR EXCHANGE PROGRAM

A program of the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA), U.S. Department of State, administered by American Councils for International Education and the Commission for Educational Exchange between the United States of America and the Argentine Republic (Fulbright Commission)

PROGRAM OVERVIEW:

The Argentina Administrator Exchange Program is a short-term, mutual exchange opportunity for U.S. and Argentina school administrators that is fully funded by the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA), U.S. Department of State. The program provides a professional development opportunity for U.S. and Argentine school administrators to work together on issues of mutual interest to their communities, schools and students. Argentine administrators spend three weeks with their U.S. partner during the fall and the U.S. administrators travel to Argentina the following summer. The programs are individualized through collaboration between partners and may focus on personnel administration, school systems and management, instruction, global issues and culture, curriculum development, student affairs, and/or educational policy.

Program implementation is provided by American Councils for International Education, in partnership with the Commission for Educational Exchange between the United States of America and the Argentine Republic (Fulbright Commission).

PROGRAM ELIGIBILITY:

- Be a U.S. citizen
- Be a full-time employee in the U.S. with at least three years experience as an elementary, middle or secondary school administrator (superintendents, principals, vice principals).
- Attend Washington, DC program orientation
- Host administrative partner in home community and school (home stay) for three weeks
- Travel to Argentina, participate in pre-program orientation and complete full program in Argentina

Applicants should be creative, self-reliant, flexible and able to maintain excellent relationships with faculty, staff, and students in Argentina. Applicants should have a sincere interest in learning from the experience of others and sharing best practices. Applicants should also be prepared to make presentations about the United States before diverse audiences in Argentina. Spanish is recommended, but not required.

COST AND GRANT PROVISIONS:

This program is fully funded through the Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA), U.S. Department of State. For U.S. administrators, this grant includes international and domestic airfare; meals and/or per diem; accommodations for orientation in Washington, DC and program in Argentina; a hosting stipend for the U.S. partner school; and a shipping stipend for materials.

Upon completion of the program, participants become eligible to participate in the alumni small grant program for activities that foster communication between American and Argentine schools.

EDUCATIONAL SEMINARS ORGANIZATIONS

THE BUREAU OF EDUCATIONAL AND CULTURAL AFFAIRS, U.S. DEPARTMENT OF STATE

The Bureau of Educational and Cultural Affairs (ECA) of the U.S. Department of State fosters mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of other countries to promote friendly, and peaceful relations, as mandated by the Mutual Educational and Cultural Exchange Act of 1961.

ECA accomplishes its mission through a range of programs based on the benefits of mutual understanding, international educational and cultural exchange, and leadership development. We engage youth, students, educators, artists, athletes, and rising leaders in many fields in the United States and more than 160 countries through academic, cultural, sports, and professional exchanges. Striving to reflect the diversity of the United States and global society, ECA programs, funding, and other activities encourage the involvement of American and international participants from traditionally underrepresented groups, including women, racial and ethnic minorities, and people with disabilities.

ECA exchange program alumni encompass over 1 million people around the world, including more than 40 Nobel Laureates and more than 300 current and former heads of state and government.

AMERICAN COUNCILS FOR INTERNATIONAL EDUCATION: ACTR/ACCELS

American Councils contributes to the creation of new knowledge, broader professional perspectives, and personal and intellectual growth through international training, academic exchanges, collaboration in educational development, and public diplomacy. With a presence in the U.S., Russia and Eurasia for nearly four decades, in addition to representation in over thirty countries across Asia, the Middle East and Southeastern Europe, American Councils strives to expand dialog among students, scholars, educators and professionals for the advancement of learning and mutual respect in the diverse communities and societies in which we work.

Founded in 1974 as an association for area and language professionals, American Councils has focused its expertise on academic exchange, professional training, distance learning, curriculum and test development, delivery of technical assistance, research, evaluation, and institution building.

THE COMMISSION FOR EDUCATIONAL EXCHANGE BETWEEN THE UNITED STATES AND ARGENTINA REPUBLIC (FULBRIGHT COMMISSION)

The Commission for Educational Exchange between the United States and Argentina (Argentina Fulbright Commission) is an independent, non-profit, bi-national organization created in 1956 by the signature of an agreement between the two governments to administer the Fulbright grants. Its mission is to increase mutual understanding between the people of the United States and the people of Argentina through the sharing of ideas, knowledge, skills and individual experiences. Since its creation, the Commission has awarded over 5500 grants to Argentine and U.S. citizens. These grants have enabled the recipients to study, teach and conduct research in the United States as well as in Argentina. Argentine and U.S. Fulbright alumni have made major teaching, research and professional contributions in a variety of disciplines from science and humanities to business and diplomacy.
